As registrations have now opened for the RI 2023 Melbourne Convention, more and more delegates are being attracted to the opportunity to visit Melbourne Rotarians in their homes on Monday night 29th May for a once in lifetime opportunity to experience true old fashioned Aussie hospitality, a night of culture, good food, good wine and fun. A chance to see us how we are!

Demand from delegates for this wonderful Aussie experience is currently far exceeding supply with many choosing to go on a 'wait list'.

The Host Organising Committee is therefore urging all Rotarians who live within a 20km radius of the CBD to seriously consider providing 4-8 of our international/interstate delegates a true Melbourne experience by inviting them to your home for a memorable evening of hospitality, culture and international fellowship.

Hosts will be provided with $55 per guest to help offset costs you may incur such as food and transport to and from delegates' hotels.

click on volunteer and register your interest to be a home hospitality host for one evening - and provide the experience of a lifetime for our guests!
